The 5 P's To Do Your Best On The MAP

Step 1: Be Positive (Video - 2:32)

Summary:

A positive attitude is a powerful feeling you have that great things are going to happen for you.

Why do you always need to have a positive attitude?

You can always do things better with a positive attitude than you can with a negative attitude.

How can you always have a positive attitude?

One way is to make yourself smile. A smile will help you turn a negative attitude into a positive one.

Discussion Points:

As you prepare for and then take the MAP, to do your best requires a positive attitude. So . . . Smile and think positive about the MAP!

Bud has a positive attitude about the MAP. Dud doesn't.

So . . . What are you going to do? Be positive like Bud OR be like Dud.

Questions:

- 1) Are you going to do your BEST on the MAP for YOU, your parents, your teachers, and your school?
- 2) Are you going to always have a positive attitude as you prepare for and take the MAP?

Answers:

- 1) Doing your BEST on the MAP requires a commitment. By answering "yes" to this question you are saying that you are committed to doing your BEST and that you will do everything you need to do to do your BEST.
- 2) If your answer to question 1) was "yes", then your answer to this question must also be "yes".

If you want to do your BEST on the MAP,
you must always have a positive attitude about it.
